4	<pre>###Task Description: You are given a target translation and several linguistic concepts that outline the important aspects of its associated source text to pay attention to during translation. 1. Generate distinct checklist items in English by following the target-to-source direction, which involves formulating questions about literary translation aspects that are not specified in the source text but are implied by the response. 2. The checklist items must bring dynamism through referring directly to the provided target translation. 3. The checklist items must avoid prejudging the quality of the translation and must be framed as open-ended questions to be more descriptive than simple binary ones. 4. Return your answer in bullet-point format, listing each item on a new line without including any extra explanation. ###Target Translation: [INPUT] ###Source Text Linguistic Concepts: [CONCEPTS]</pre>
